1. (a) The following list contains both arguments and statements.

4

Tick (✓) the four arguments.

☐ He loves her and he has promised to marry her. That means he should marry her.

☐ I have never liked Max. He is friendly with some people I know and he used to go out with my best friend. But I don't like him.

☐ The cookie jar is empty because the children ate all the cookies.

☐ The standards for the Most Amazing Dog prize at the village fete are agility, loyalty, cuteness and wagginess of tail. The prize is a year's worth of luxury dog food, a top-of-the-range dog bed and a dog grooming voucher.

☐ The sewing machine needs electricity. So, because it is not plugged in, it will not work.

☐ Storm clouds are coming in this direction, so it is definitely going to rain today.

☐ I love going to the cinema with my friends. I also enjoy skate boarding and swimming but the cinema is my favourite.

☐ All horses have four legs. Cloppy is a horse. Therefore, Cloppy has four legs.

1. (e) (continued)

- (iii) I'm against lowering the voting age to 16. This will only lead to further demands to lower it to 14. Then it will be 12, and before we know it, 5-year-old children will be allowed to vote. That would be ridiculous! The voting age has to remain at 18.

Name the fallacy _____ 1

Describe the fallacy _____ 1

Explain, with reference to the above argument, why you think it is a fallacy. 1

1. (continued)

- (f) If I work for two hours then I will get ten pounds. I have not worked for two hours, so I will not get ten pounds.

Explain why the argument above is invalid.
